Året er 1913, og den tidligere soldat, nu storvildtsjæger, Leon Courtney, er i Britisk Afrika, hvor han fungerer som guide for rige og magtfulde mænd fra Amerika og Europa, som vil på safari i masaiernes territorium. En af hans klienter, den tyske industrimagnat, Grev Otto Von Meerbach, har et blomstrende firma, som bygger flyvemaskiner og køretøjer for den tyske kejsers hær. Leon forelsker sig i Eva, von Meerbachs smukke og uimodståelige elskerinde. Lige før 1. verdenskrigs udbrud bliver Leon rekrutteret af sin onkel, Penrod Ballantyne, den øverstkommanderende for de britiske styrker i Østafrika. Han bliver bedt om at indsamle information om von Meerbach og snubler samtidig over et komplot mod briterne, som involverer de desillusionerede overlevende fra Boer-krigen. Det er dog først, da Eva og von Meerbach vender tilbage til Afrika, at Leon opdager, hvad der virkelig ligger til grund for komplotet.

Det skrev anmelderne, da bogen udkom "Smith manages to serve up adventure, history and melodrama in one thrilling package that will be eagerly devoured by series fans."
