A SINGLE BASKETBALL GAME CHANGES EVERYTHING... When they were only teenagers, Axel and Caxton were caught making out in the woods at church camp. And afterward, Cax had disappeared from all the youth group activities.

Six years later, Axel is astonished to spot his first love's face in the crowd of a college basketball game he's watching on TV—at a school which has just offered him a job. It's a thousand miles away, in a tiny rural town. But suddenly, he can't wait to get there.

Cax can't believe his eyes when Axel appears in the same Massachusetts town where he now lives. And he's still just as drawn to Axel as ever. But he can't let himself go there again, because loving Axel will mean giving up everything else he holds dear.

Both men have so much to lose. But as far as their love is concerned, it's Hello Forever.
