Efter at de tre Copeland-søstre har mistet deres far, er den ukendte lord Faulkner blevet deres værge, og da han forlanger, at en af søstrene gifter sig med ham, stikker de to yngste af hjemmefra. Den ældste, Diana, rejser til London, dels for at opspore sine søstre, dels for at indvilge i lord Faulkners frieri. Efter faderens død er hun blevet svigtet af sin forlovede på grund af sin forringede situation, og nu ønsker hun at hævne sig. Da hun træffer sin yderst tiltrækkende værge, er der imidlertid mange andre gode grunde end hævn til at indgå ægteskab med ham ... Men lord Faulkner er arrogant, og Diana egenrådig, og snart slår temperamenterne gnister.
