Money is a blessing and a curse for Brenton Hathaway. When a marriage proposal goes wrong, the 23-year-old travels west for a summer job as a farm-hand. The gig barely pays, but the wealthy heir doesn't mind -- all he needs is a little country quiet to get his head straight. But what happens between Brenton and his new boss, the handsome farmer JT, is anything but straight ...

JT Thaler knows a thing or two about marriages that don't work. Ever since the divorce, the 33-year-old has struggled to make ends meet -- and his farm continues to shrink. Convinced he'll never love again, the lonely farmer has had to settle for hopeless crushes on the hired help. He's never acted on any of those crushes -- until Brenton showed up, anyway ...

Both men know that when the summer ends, so must their fling. But after having tasted life with each other, can they live apart?
