Sir Philip Hampton seems to be exactly what he claims: a loyal Royalist newly returned from exile in France.

But Alysa Leighton must be without doubt, for in 1659 England, Civil War has set Royalist against Roundhead, and those who support the king, like Alysa's family, are always in peril.

If Philip proves a Roundhead spy, everyone Alysa loves is in grave danger. But the more Alysa learns of Philip, the more she likes him.

Soon a marriage proposal is in the air and Alysa realizes she is in love. But is Philip friend or foe?
