It's not about your first love, but the first love you fight for... The fifth book in the scorching hot NEW YORK TIMES bestselling MARKED MEN New Adult series.

After his first broken heart, Rowdy St. James decided he was going to do everything in his power to live up to his nickname: life was all about the good times. But when a ghost from the past appears, she makes him question everything he thought he knew about love.

Salem Cruz grew up in a house with too many rules - and no fun allowed. She left it all behind as soon as she could, but she never forgot the sweet, blue-eyed boy next door who'd been in love with her little sister. Now, Salem is determined to show Rowdy he picked the wrong sister all those years ago.

As their relationship heats up, Rowdy starts to let his heart go - until the one person who could drive them apart shows up again.

Reviews

Praise for Jay Crownover:

'A wildly addicting read!' Cora Carmack, New York Times bestselling author of Losing It

'Deliciously real, raw, and romantic. Jay Crownover is amazing!' Monica Murphy, New York Times bestselling author

'The characters of Crownover's Marked Men series are all outlandishly colorful and irresistibly passionate, while still being so genuine that their stories become unforgettable. This fifth installment, which reunites old friends and lovers, is no exception' RT BOOK REVIEWS

About the author

Jay Crownover is the New York Times and USA Today bestselling author of the Marked Men and Welcome to the Point series. Like her characters, she is a big fan of tattoos. She loves music and wishes she could be a rock star, but since she has no aptitude for singing or instrument playing, she'll settle for writing stories with interesting characters and make the reader feel something. She lives in Colorado with her three dogs.
