The next book in the smoking hot SAINTS OF DENVER series from NYT bestselling author of the MARKED MEN series, Jay Crownover

Hudson Wheeler is tired of being the nice guy. He's ready to start living in the moment but when he meets Poppy Cruz, her sad eyes hook him in right away. Wheeler can see Poppy's pain and all he wants to do is take care of her and make her smile, whatever it takes.

After a lifetime of being hurt, Poppy's determined to keep herself safe by keeping everyone else at arm's length. Wheeler's sexy grin shouldn't captivate her, but every time she's with him, she can't help being pulled closer. Though she's terrified to trust again, Poppy soon realizes it might hurt even more to shut Wheeler out - and her intense feelings are making it near impossible to resist him.

The only thing Poppy is sure of is that her heart is in need of some serious repair, and the more time she spends with Wheeler, the more she's convinced he's the only man with the tools to fix it.

Reviews

Praise for Jay Crownover:

'A wildly addicting read!' Cora Carmack, New York Times bestselling author of Losing It

'Deliciously real, raw, and romantic. Jay Crownover is amazing!' Monica Murphy, New York Times bestselling author

'The characters of Crownover's Marked Men series are all outlandishly colorful and irresistibly passionate, while still being so genuine that their stories become unforgettable' RT BOOK REVIEWS

About the author

Jay Crownover is the New York Times and USA Today bestselling author of the Marked Men and Welcome to the Point series. Like her characters, she is a big fan of tattoos. She loves music and wishes she could be a rock star, but since she has no aptitude for singing or instrument playing, she'll settle for writing stories with interesting characters and make the reader feel something. She lives in Colorado with her three dogs.
