What's a man to do when the one who got away comes roaring back into his life, and asks for a little help in the bedroom?

Say Hell, Yeah.

Of course.

But if she happens to be my business partner's daughter? And she'll be working in our practice, where we'll be rubbing elbows every day? Also, have I mentioned she's as dynamic, brilliant, and captivatingly sexy as ever?

A smart man would say no.

A wise man would say no, hell no, and never.

And I'm a pretty smart guy.

But see, Sloane has issued a hell of a challenge—make her purr like no man has ever done before, and if there's one thing I know I can do, it's make a woman feel oh-so-good in the sheets.

The lady knows where she wants to go. What's the harm in a few nights...and then a few more...spent taking her there? And the more I discover what brings Sloane satisfaction, the more I want to discover every little thing about her.

The trouble is Sloane might be my dream girl, but my professional dreams are tied to my partnership with her father.

Am I too far gone to resist the woman who got away?
