Sort land er et kig ind gennem tillukkede og friturefedtede persienner til en indvandrerghetto i Danmark - et parallelsamfund, hvor egne love og regler hersker.

Ahmad Mahmoud er vokset op i Askerød som den næst yngste i en søskendeflok på syv. Han giver i sort land et rystende billede af ghettolivet, hvor vold er daglig kost på lige fod med de arabiske retter, der tilberedes af kvinderne 24/7, så de kan stå klar til familiens patriark.

Indvandrerghettoen - med dens mange børn, koranskoler, bander, arrangerede ægteskaber og folk på overførselsindkomst - har sin helt egen kultur, som ingen ønsker at ændre; slet ikke dem, der lever i den.

Ahmad har selv brudt et socialt mønster, og sort land er hans opråb til andre om at følge hans eksempel - ikke mindst indvandrerkvinderne, så deres børn kan få samme chance som han!
