Maddie

Growing up, I never knew my dad. My mom treated me like a slave and beat me when I didn't do something she liked. When I left the house, I went from one bad situation to another. I thought Brad was everything that I was looking for in a guy. Until he showed the real guy he is.

Meeting Bailey and the Wild King MC members changed my life, and that of my daughter, for the better. I'm just looking to get on my feet and learn to live on my own. Having a guy around doesn't matter to me, and I'm not looking for one. Until I see the man that can see through me with one look. Tank. He makes me feel safe, wanted, and protected. Even when he doesn't believe that's true.

Tank

I've been through more things in my life than most people can even dream about going through. The Wild Kings have been my only family for so long. A few members that have had my back, whether I was Nomad or not, know my story. The rest, I don't let get that close. My son is dead and it's because I failed him.

I vowed never to let anyone else get close to me. That goes out the window the second I lay eyes on the strawberry blond hair and pale blue eyes. She captures my attention and no matter what I do, I can't get her, or her daughter, out of my head. For the first time in a very long time, I want to let someone in. I want to get close to her.

Will Maddie's past threaten to tear them apart before they even begin? Can Tank get over his feelings from the past to truly let Maddie and Zoey in? Will bigger forces tear the club apart?
