"Exciting and simply terrific. Original and inventive... [the] story is so exceptional that it can only earn the top rating."
—RomanceReviewsMag.com

Willow will go to any lengths to exact justice from the man who murdered her mother.

For the first time in twenty years, she has a bead on his location: San Francisco. There's no question that she's going to follow him, even if he still wants the scroll he's already killed for once.

But she walks into a set-up and, instead of being the predator, she becomes the prey. Now not only is her mother's killer after her, but the police as well.

Willow is used to working alone, but the stakes are too high. To get what she wants she has to team up with the last person on earth she trusts: a sexy homicide detective who suspects her of murder. Worse: he's not just tempting—he's irresistible.
