Desperate for a change and independence, Andie leaves the security of her family and accepts a teaching position in Winthrop, Alaska. She's completely unprepared for the cold, harsh winter as well as the wildlife, but she knows what she wants. Knox.

Knox loves the land, loves the challenges and beauty of Alaska. But he also knows that delicate beauties like Andie won't make it. And he's not going to become involved with a woman who can't handle the life. He won't leave and he's sure that Andie will.

But Andie is determined. She'll figure out how to survive and thrive. And she'll figure out how to win Knox's heart. She just has to seduce him first. She's whittling down his willpower. She's stronger than she looks and more determined than he can imagine.
