A lady and a Captain find love on the verge of a devastating war

Gwyn Campbell was certain that she would meet her future husband at the Campbell clan's May Day gathering. But she did not anticipate that the English would choose that day to attack the castle, and she was certainly not expecting to happen upon the injured English Captain, Jack Lockton. The knight is...surprisingly handsome, for her clan's hated enemy. Gwyn would never let him escape, but as she tends to his injuries, her intrigue grows—as does her heart. And with the Campbells and the English on the verge of war, a forbidden love might become their only hope for peace.
