It was her special day... but his worst nightmare.

A rekindled romance wasn't part of the plan.

Despite his American background, August O'Leary is the most sought-after wedding planner in London. Naturally, Libby and Edward come to him for a wedding the city will never forget. But Edward is an international businessman, so the details are left to Libby and her best friend—who happens to be the love of August's life and the one who broke his heart eight years ago: Christopher Burke.

How's August supposed to pull off the event of the year with Christopher distracting him and old feelings crashing the party uninvited?

Christopher has let money and status dictate his life, but no more. His failure to stand up to others' expectations cost him his future with August—one he hoped would include marriage. Now he has to face August's hurt and anger and prove he's still the best man to make August happy.
