The dreams start, and Bethi's very normal life goes down the toilet. She soon realizes the dreams are actually memories from past lives... and not just hers. She sees the lives of other women like her.

The recalled memories follow the same terrifying pattern: Dog-men chase her, and she sees her eventual tormented death. Learning from the past, Bethi sets out to find a way to live this time around. The dreams hint at an answer.

She needs to be strong enough to find it or die... again.
